

Contents

Preface

page ix

Part I

- |   |                     |    |
|---|---------------------|----|
| 1 | People and things   | 1  |
| 2 | What things are for | 20 |

Part II

- |   |  |     |
|---|--|-----|
| 3 | The most cherished objects in the home           | 55  |
| 4 | Object relations and the development of the self | 90  |
| 5 | The home as symbolic environment                 | 121 |
| 6 | Characteristics of happy homes                   | 146 |

Part III

- |   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| 7 | The transactions between persons and things | 173 |
| 8 | Signs of family life                        | 197 |
| 9 | Meaning and survival                        | 225 |

Appendixes

- |   |                                   |     |
|---|-----------------------------------|-----|
| A | Procedures and interview notes    | 250 |
| B | Interview schedules               | 254 |
| C | Coding categories and definitions | 268 |
| D | Additional tables                 | 278 |
|   | Name index                 | 298 |
|   | Subject index              | 301 |