

Contents

Prefaces	7
Introduction	11
Part 1: Origins and Structure of the Marxian Theory
Chapter I: Origins of the Concept of Alienation	27
1. The Judeo-Christian Approach	28
2. Alienation as "Universal Saleability"	33
3. Historicity and the Rise of Anthropology	36
4. The End of "Uncritical Positivism"	48
Chapter II: Genesis of Marx's Theory of Alienation	66
1. Marx's Doctoral Thesis and His Critique of the Modern State	66
2. The Jewish Question and the Problem of German Emancipation	70
3. Marx's Encounter with Political Economy	76
4. Monistic Materialism	84
5. The Transformation of Hegel's Idea of "Activity"	87
Chapter III: Conceptual Structure of Marx's Theory of Alienation	93
1. Foundations of the Marxian System	93
2. Conceptual Framework of Marx's Theory of Alienation	99
3. Alienation and Teleology	114