The Cambridge Group can be extended to single industries as I did in Part I of Inst & Str i.e. growth rate of industry determines profit rate and, as a further step you may extend it to the single firm (or rather you may argue that the single firm has to regard the standard set by its industry as appropriate for its own standards;

But what about multi-product, multi-industry firms? You must require the dividend in two sectors.

The argument for the firm is 1/2,
